

Let Me VOTE

Many Californians mistakenly believe a criminal conviction keeps them from voting.

Politicians bet on that fact to win elections.

On Probation?
Off Parole?
Off Community Supervision?

IS THE ANSWER YES?
YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO VOTE

If you have a misdemeanor conviction, you can always vote.

In fact, you always keep your right to vote unless you are currently serving a sentence for certain felonies.

If you have a felony conviction, you can vote if:

- You are on probation OR
- you have completed your post-release community supervision OR
- you have completed your mandatory supervision OR
- you have completed parole.

Your voting rights are automatically returned when you complete your sentence. You just have to fill out a voter registration card.
