

2020 Presidential Primary Election - Get Ready to Vote

In 2020, Los Angeles County voters have more days and more locations to vote. Whether by mail or in-person, voting is more convenient than ever.

Party matters for the Presidential Primary Election.

- If you are not registered with a political party your ballot will not list the candidates for president, unless you request a partisan ballot. Learn more at www.sos.ca.gov/elections/voting-info/how-vote-president/
- Check your voter registration status: lavote.net/vrstatus

Vote By Mail - More options for returning your ballot. No stamps needed.

- Request a vote by mail ballot by February 25.
- Don't forget to sign and date your vote by mail return envelope.
- Return your ballot:
 - By mail. No stamp needed. Must be postmarked by Election Day, March 3.
 - Drop off at a ballot drop box. Find a location at lavote.net
 - Drop off at any vote center starting Feb 22. Find a location at lavote.net
 - Give to a trusted friend, family member or person to return for you.
