Check Status of Your Voter Registration

Don't remember if you're registered to vote? Need to check what name you're registered under or what political party you're registered with?

Some county elections officials allow you to check the status of your voter registration through their website, by telephone, or both.

To find out if you are currently registered to vote in your county, click on the appropriate link below or call the phone number listed for the county elections office. For further information about the elections services provided in your county, visit our County Elections offices page.

Not sure what county you live in? Simply enter your zip code with the U.S. Census Bureau or call our voter hotline at (800) 345-VOTE.

If you are not registered to vote, you can fill out an online voter registration application. You can also print a blank application or pick up an application at your county elections office, any Department of Motor Vehicles office, and many post offices, public libraries, and government offices. To have a paper application mailed to you call your county elections office or the Secretary of State's toll-free voter hotline at (800) 345-VOTE.
