

GET READY TO VOTE CALIFORNIA

A Guide to Voting in the 2020 Presidential Election

California voters have options for voting this Fall. Due to the ongoing pandemic, every active registered voter will get a ballot in the mail but can choose to vote in-person or vote by mail.

REGISTER TO VOTE OR CHECK YOUR VOTER REGISTRATION STATUS

Vote before Election Day. Ballots will be mailed to all voters the week of October 5 and you can choose to vote from home or to vote in-person at a voting location.

Fill out your ballot at home. Seal, Sign and Date the envelope of your voted ballot. No postage is necessary. Return it as early as possible. You can return your ballot in the following ways:

- United States Postal Service. Drop it off at a mailbox or at any post office. Ballots must be postmarked by November 3, Election Day and received at your county election office by November 20.
- Ballot Drop Box. Many counties have conveniently located secure ballot boxes throughout the county. Find a location.
- In-person Voting Location. Drop it off at any in-person voting location in your county. Dates and hours vary by county. Find a location.
- Trusted Person. Have a friend or family member drop off your ballot for you. Follow the instructions on the envelope to designate that person.

Vote in-person. Many counties will offer opportunities to vote early. Voting locations may be updated in the coming weeks. Know where to go by checking your County Election Office website. Visit a voting location to:

- Vote on accessible voting machines
- Get assistance in the covered languages for your county
- Register and vote the same day
- Get a replacement ballot

OR VOTE ON ELECTION DAY, TUES. NOV. 3
